According to a very nice user by the name of Kornwoj, in addition to being a developer of The Legend of Zelda game Four Swords Adventures, which we've played a couple times now, he's worked on another Zelda game, Skyward Sword: Legends of Hyrule, and he's also worked on The Legend of Zelda: Ocarina of Time 3D. That means that he's not necessarily an expert in making a game; but you'd hardly think a developer would be an expert in making a demo too, if it's a demo for someone else.. A few hours ago it came out that there's been a huge backlash against the way the game is being developed. Some people have gone on and on about how it's unfair to be required to play the demo while you're just trying to do your job. There's been also allegations of cheating; a lot of us were disappointed when we found out that we wouldn't have been able to complete all the levels in the game!..
